

St. Johns Youth Baseball Association

2010 Season Baseball Umpire Application

The St. Johns Youth Baseball Association (SJYBA) is accepting applications for paid umpire positions for the 2010 Baseball-Softball season. Experience is not required, but a basic understanding of Baseball and the rules is necessary. Division rules and umpire training will be provided prior to the start of the season. Chest protector, shin guards, mask and umpire shirt are supplied by SJYBA. Baseball umps are encouraged to wear a cup. Pay will be set by the SJYBA based upon the level being umpired, experience and will range from $15.00 per game to $25.00 per game. All umpires will be independent contractors and not employees of SJYBA.

Persons interested in umpiring should fill out the application below and turn it in to: 1) St. Johns High School Student Services by May 26, 2010 2) SJYBA Board member at the field house located at the Bee's Fields in St. John 3) mail it to: SJYBA, attn: Umps, PO Box 95, St. Johns, MI 48879 4) download it from www.sjyba.com and email it to Mark Werner (see below)
